

THE INTERNATIONAL SCOPE® REVIEW

The Issues

VOLUME 9 (2008/2009)

VOLUME 9 (2008/2009), ISSUE 14 (YEARLY)

Editorial, by Patrick Hunout

1 - Patrick HUNOUT, Robert Michels, the Political Parties and Social Capital

Social Capital and Societal Development

2 - Patrick HUNOUT, A World in Convulsions: the New Orthodoxy and the Social Order

Social Capital and the Internet

3 - Hilary YERBURY, Creating Social Capital through the Internet: Thoughts and Experiences of Generations X and Y

Migrations: the Role of Social Capital

4 - Damian SPITERI, Illegal Immigrants in Malta: the Role of Social Capital

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

5 - Aicha KADDOUR, Social Capital, Integration Process and Health among Algerian Immigrant Women in Quebec

Social Capital, Government and Local Policies

6 - Ireneusz SADOWSKI, On Putnam's Trail, Impact of Civic Activity and Coalitions on Local Government in Poland

Intergenerational Relationships and Family Integration

7- Ponmalar ALAGAPPAR, Wendy MEI TIEN and Maya K. DAVID, The Attitude of Malaysian Students Towards the Elderly

VOLUME 8 (2006/2007), CONTENTS

VOLUME 8 (2006/2007), ISSUE 13 (YEARLY)

Editorial, by Otto Steiger, Alexi Danchev and Patrick Hunout:
John Kenneth Galbraith, the Affluent Society, and Social Capital

1 - Otto STEIGER, Alexi DANCHEV and Patrick HUNOUT, John Kenneth Galbraith, the Affluent Society, and Social Capital

Social Capital and Economic Development

2 - Becky HSU, Social Capital as a Link between Religion and the Economy

The Ethnic Integration of Society

3 - Omar BOUROUH, Social Capital and Integration of Early Arab Immigrants in Canada

Social Capital, Trust and Civic Engagement

4 - Jenny JOB, Building Social and Political Trust: the Role of Social Capital

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

5 - René MILLAN and Fiorella MANCINI, Civic Engagement and Social Performance:
Illustrations from two Mexican Cities

Measurement of Social Capital and Policy Implementation

6 - John SUDARSKY, The Measurement of Social Capital in Colombia and its development in Bogota

Rural Community Vitality

7- Rosa Maria McMANAMEY, Exploring Social Capital through Community Newspapers

8 - Marilyn BRUIN, Christine COOK, Mack SHELLEY and Sue CRULL, Social Capital, Housing Planning, and Rural Community Vitality

VOLUME 7 (2005)

VOLUME 7 (2005), ISSUE 12 (YEARLY)

Editorial, by Patrick Hunout, Maya David and Jean Dewitt: Referring Governments to the Community: Henry David Thoreau Revisited

1 - Patrick HUNOUT, Maya DAVID and Jean DEWITT, Referring Governments to the Community: Henry David Thoreau Revisited

Social Capital, Trust and Commiment

2- Medhat ENDRAWES and Kenan MATAWIE, The Effect of Individualism/Collectivism on Professional Commitment

3 - José-Atilano PENA-LÓPEZ and José-Manuel SÁNCHEZ-SANTOS, Trust, Social Capital and Moral Capital

Social Capital and Social Change

4 - Przemyslaw GADOMSKI and Anna GABRYJELSKA, Social Capital Changes in Poland

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

The Impact of Social Capital over Personal Relationships

5 - Loren DEMERATH , The Good Social Life: Variations in Social Capital and Fulfillment

Social Capital Definition

6 - Massimo PENDENZA, Social Capital in Italy. The State of the Art

Democracy and the Middle-Class

7- Kenneth ROBERTS, Emergent Class Divisions among Young Adults in the Former Soviet Union

8 - Kirk JOHNSON and Mike KARLBERG, Rethinking Power and Caste in Rural India

VOLUME 6 (2004)

VOLUME 6 (2004), ISSUE 11 (YEARLY)

Editorial, by Maya David and Alfred Chan: Family as the First Community

1 - Maya DAVID and Alfred CHAN, Family as the First Community

The Age of Selfishness

2 - Harley SCHRECK, The Intergenerational Contract in a Selfish Age

Filial Respect in Asia: The Change of Times

3 - Alfred CHAN and Maggie LIM, Changes of Filial Piety in China

4 - Maya DAVID, Communication Between Grandchildren and Grandparents

The Impact of Individualist Values over Family Values

5 - José Luis VEIRA, Family Values in Spain, 1981-2001

6 - Klaus DEIMEL, Generation Succession in Family Owned Companies

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

The Challenged Patterns of the Family

- 7 - Norman LINZER, Same-Sex Marriage in America: The Struggle for Legitimacy
8 - Alfred CHAN, Carmen NG, Liliane CHAN and David PHILLIPS, The Meaning of Care for Experienced Caregivers

VOLUME 5 (2003)

1 - VOLUME 5 (2003), ISSUE 9 (SUMMER)

The Erosion of the Social Link in the Economically Advanced Countries, Part I

Introduction, by Patrick Hunout, Didier Le Gall and Brent Shea:
The Destruction of Society: Challenging the “Modern” Tryptique: Individualism, Hedonism, Consumerism

- 1 - Patrick HUNOUT, Didier LE GALL and Brent SHEA, The Destruction of Society: Challenging the 'Modern' Tryptique: Individualism, Hedonism, Consumerism

Uprising Suicides

- 2 - Greg SCOTT, Frank DEANE and Joseph CIARROCHI, The Increasing incidence of suicide: Economic Development, Individualism, and Social Integration

Rise in Loneliness and Psychotropic Drug Use

- 3 - Warren H. JONES and Lauriann HEBB, The Experience of Loneliness: Objective and Subjective Factors
4 - Philippe LE MOIGNE, Psychotropic Drug Use: Toward a Medical Treatment of Isolation?

Impropriety and Human Relations in Today’s Society

- 5 - Robin KOWALSKI, The Escalation of Incivility in Western Culture

Sects and Religious Movements Gaining Ground

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

6 - Irving HEXHAM and Karla POEWE, The Rise of Sects in the Western Countries:
New Religions and Social Bond

Malaise in Cultural Identity

7 - Pamela GELLER, Evelyn OROZCO, Ellen MOORE-BOOHAR and Adriana RESTREPO, Multiethnicity: Its impact on Reference Benchmarks

Gender Relationships

8 - Marcos AGUIAR DE SOUZA and Maria-Cristina FERREIRA, Men-Women Role Expectations: Do they still overlap?

2 - VOLUME 5 (2003), ISSUE 10 (WINTER)

The Erosion of the Social Link in the Economically Advanced Countries, Part II

Introduction, by Patrick Hunout and Brent Shea: The Decline of the West Revisited

1 - Patrick HUNOUT and Brent SHEA, The Decline of The West Revisited

Uprising Divorces

2 - Duncan CRAMER, Rise in Divorce: The Weakening of Commitment

The Comeback of Homelessness

3 - Evanthe SCHURINK, Homeless People and Social Support: The Process of Becoming Homeless

Loneliness in Today's Society

4 - Daniel RUSSELL, Emily FLOM, Kelli GARDNER, Carolyn CUTRONA and Robert HESSLING, Who Makes Friends over the Internet? Alternatives to Loneliness and Virtual Community

Sects and Religious Movements Gaining Ground

5 - Masachi OHSAWA, Religion and Terrorism: The Aum Sect in Japan

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

Multiethnicity and Crime

- 6 - Anton SENEKAL, Willem SCHURINK and Emmerentie OLIPHANT, Violence and Crime in a Multiethnic Context: A South-African Case Study

Irrelevant Responses to the Crisis

- 7 - Bill DOHERTY and Patrick HUNOUT, The Call for Therapists: Good Business for the Professionals, Bad Business for Society?

VOLUME 4 (2002)

1 - VOLUME 4 (2002), ISSUE 7 (SUMMER)

Immigration and Cultural Identity in the Economically Advanced Countries, the Case of Germany and France (Special Issue, Part II)

Dr Geller's Editorial: Nations respond to Fear

1. Pamela A. GELLER and Ellen MOORE-BOOHAR, Nations respond to fear

Immigration as a Strategy

2. Michel GRIGNON, The Impact of Immigration on the Workforce in Receiving Countries: the Economic Pros and Cons of Immigration
3. Patrick HUNOUT, The Socio-Political Objectives of the Recourse to Immigration
4. Hervé LE BRAS, "Natalism" and "Populationism" in France
5. Albert BASTENIER, The Reactions of the Original French Population to Immigration
6. Patrick HUNOUT, A Strategy of the Leviathan

The Effects of Immigration on Our Societies

7. Michèle TRIBALAT, Cultural Assimilation of the Foreigners and Societal Integration

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

8. Dominique DUPREZ, Kids of Migrants in the Housing Estates in French Cities
9. Marina HILY and Michel ORIOL, New Kinship Structures in France
10. Peter NOACK, The Attitude of German Young People Towards Foreigners
11. Wolfgang SEIFERT, The Changing Profile of Immigration in Germany
12. Bernhard NAUCK, Cultural Transmittal from One Generation to Another: Differences between the Turks who migrated to Germany and the Turks who Remained in Turkey

Sources

13. Bibliography

2 - VOLUME 4 (2002), ISSUE 8 (WINTER)

Editorial, by Patrick Hunout and Todd Holden: The New Leviathan, Tolkien, and "Empire"

1. Patrick HUNOUT and Todd Joseph Miles HOLDEN, The New Leviathan, Tolkien, and "Empire"

Globalization, Social Destabilization and Terrorism

2. James GOODMAN, Nationalism and Globalism: Social Movement Responses
3. Pam NILAN, Young People, Politics and Religion in Indonesia

Human Comparisons Across Cultures

4. Rosemarie CANT, Caring for the Ailing Aged in Three Societies
5. Todd HOLDEN, Color Coding: Globalization and the Ad
6. Rebecca McHUGH and Raphael Jane PRASETYO, Social Capital in Asia: A Proposal for Discussion

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

The Practical Fallouts of Globalization on Asian Societies

7. Tim SCRASE, Globalization and the Future of Asian Artisan Labor
8. P. G. DHAR CHAKRABARTI, Invisible Economic Activities of Women: Implications for Social Policy in India
9. Jung HOON HAN and Scott BAUM, Residential Mobility in the Seoul Metropolitan region, Who, Where and Why?

VOLUME 3 (2001)

1 – VOLUME 3 (2001), ISSUE 5 (SUMMER)

The President's Editorial: Aldous Huxley and The International Scope Review

1. Patrick HUNOUT, Aldous Huxley and The International Scope Review

Cross-Cultural Topics

2. Geert HOFSTEDE, Two Wonderlands: Japan and The Netherlands through the Looking-Glass
3. Roger BAUMGARTE, Nami LEE and Steven KULICH, Friendship Patterns among University Students in Five Cultures

Transitions in Asian Societies

4. Kwang-Yeong SHIN, Asian Crisis, Class, and Patriarchy in Korean Society
5. Ruchira GANGULY-SCRASE, Women and Economic Development in India: the Bengali Lower Middle-Class
6. Syeda HOSSAIN and Syeda AKHTER, Uncontrolled Urban Growth and Development of Anomie in Bangladesh

Coping with Globalization

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

7. James GOODMAN, Contesting Corporate Globalism: Sources of Power, Channels for Resistance ?

Two Opinions about Politics and Modernity

8. Marcelo AFTALION, Politicians, What For ?

9. Charles TAYLOR, Two Theories of Modernity

2 - VOLUME 3 (2001), ISSUE 6 (WINTER)

The President's Editorial: The Horus Road

1. Patrick HUNOUT, The Horus Road

Immigration and Cultural Identity In the Economically Advanced Countries, The Case of Germany and France (Special Issue, Part I)

2. Patrick HUNOUT, Introduction : A Global Perspective

What is cultural Identity?

3. Thomas K. SCHIPPERS, Cultural Identity: Looking for a Definition

4. Pierre TAP, How Individual and Cultural Identities are Constructed

5. Ulrich WAGNER, Threats on Cultural Identity and Hostility to Migrants: Researches centred on Ethnic Majorities

French and German National Identities

6. Jacques DEMORGON, France and Germany: two Cultural Destinies

7. Jean-Robert HENRY, Algeria and Germany: the Paradoxical Benchmarks of the French Identity

8. Otto DANN, The National Identity of the Germans from a historical perspective

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

9. Rainer MUNZ and Rainer OHLIGER, Migrations of German People to Germany :
Shedding Light on the German Concept of Identity

10. Hagen KORDES, Some Keys to compare French and German
Traditional Concepts of Cultural Identity

VOLUME 2 (2000)

1 - VOLUME 2 (2000), ISSUE 3 (SUMMER)

The President's Editorial: Population, Cultures and Migrations; A Challenge for the New Century

1. Patrick HUNOUT, Population, Cultures and Migrations:
A Challenge for the New Century

The Growth of the World's Population

2. Ralf ULRICH, The Politics and Economics of the Global Population Dynamics

3. Hans FLEISCH and Ilsabe BLOME, How Non-Governmental Organizations can promote within the European Union Commitment for Population and Development

The Politics of the European Union

4. Arne HEISE, Wage Bargaining in the European Union

5. Julia EVETTS, The European Professional Federations:
Occupational Regulation in European Markets

Cross-Cultural Management

6. Johanna LUDVIGSEN, Cultural Differences among Nordic Managers

Minorities, Cultures and Language

7. Maya DAVID and Ibtisam NAJI, Do Minorities Have to Abandon their Languages?
A Case Study of the Malaysian Tamils

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

2 - VOLUME 2 (2000), ISSUE 4 (WINTER)

Professor Kosaka's Editorial: Where Does Asia Go? Transitions in Asian Societies

1. Kenji KOSAKA, Where does Asia go? Transitions in Asian Societies

A View on Contemporary Japan

2. Todd HOLDEN, "Adentity": Images of Self in Japanese Television Advertising
3. Hideo AOKI, The Underclass in Japan: a Case Study of Homeless Men in Kamagasaki and their Winter Struggle
4. Reiko YAMATO, Personal Care Preferences in Japan: the Influence of Gender and Socioeconomic Status

Indian Focus

5. S. ZAINUDDIN, Economic Internationalization and Islamic Resurgence in India
6. Caroline PLUSS, Transnational Identities: Hong-Kong Indians

Italy and Immigration : A Matter of Culture?

7. Umberto MELOTTI, Italian Immigration Policy and the Italian Political Culture

VOLUME 1 (1999)

1 - VOLUME 1 (1999), ISSUE 1 (SUMMER)

The President's Editorial: The Troubled Waters of the Power's Policy

1. Patrick HUNOUT, The Troubled Waters of the Power's Policy

EMU and the Politics of the European Union : The New Leviathan

2. Patrick HUNOUT and Patrick ZILTENER, European Monetary Union:

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

The New Leviathan

The Dangers of "Pure" Economics

3. Marcelo E. AFTALION, Argentina : Beware of Conventional Economists and their Peso Perversion

The Erosion of the Social Link in Economically Advanced Societies (to be continued)

4. Pamela A. GELLER and Evelyn A. OROZCO, Changes in Cultural Benchmarks in the Multiethnic United States

5. Alan WOLFE, Developing Civil Society : Can the Workplace replace Bowling?

UK: The Gropings of Third Way Politics

6. Henry TAM, Third Way Politics and Communitarian Ideas : Time to Take a Stand

Communitarian Movement : The Progressive Version

7. Charles DERBER, Communitarian Economics: Criticisms and Suggestions from the Left

Migration Policy to France and Germany (Thematic Issue)

8. Patrick HUNOUT and al. (French Version), Immigration et Identité en France et en
Allemagne

2 - VOLUME 1 (1999), ISSUE 2 (WINTER)

The President's Editorial: A Bridge to the Future

1. Patrick HUNOUT, A Bridge to the Future

Economic Internationalization

2. Thomas CLARKE and Stewart CLEGG, The Paradoxes of Globalization

- 3 . David BARKIN, Financial Globalization and Sustainable Development in Mexico

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---

4. Christine DORAN and Jim JOSE, Riding the Tigers of Globalization: International Challenges facing Singapore

Business On International Level

5. Maya DAVID, Trading in an Intercultural Context: the Case of Malaysia
6. Michael CANT and Annekie BRINK, Black Retailing in South Africa, A Ten-point Plan for Survival
7. Olivier BOIRAL and Isabelle DOSTALER, International Environmental Standards: the Next Passport to the Global Market?
8. Zhan SU, Successful Managers in International Joint-Ventures in China

The Erosion of the Social Link in Economically Advanced Societies

9. Michael LEICHT, The Importance of Social Capital for Europe

Migration Policy to France and Germany (Thematic Issue)

10. Patrick HUNOUT and al. (German Version), Immigration und Identität in Deutschland und Frankreich

---

Copyright The Social Capital Foundation 2009, All Rights Reserved.

All work published in The International Scope® Review is subject to copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any manner or in any medium - unless written consent is given by The Social Capital Foundation represented by its President, unless the author's name and the one of The International Scope® Review as the first publication medium appear on the work or the excerpt, and unless no charge is made for the copy containing the work or excerpt. Any demands for obtaining consent for reproduction should be sent to lawyer@internationalscope.org.

---